

Jan Tuček...

Born in Prague, Czech Rep in 1953, his relationship with the cars started straight after his birth – he was driven home in a Skoda Popular. During his childhood he loved to play with and observe cars and motorcycles with passion for hours.

Tuček published his first articles in magazines Modelář, Motoristická součastnost and Svět Motorů (The World of Engines) long before he finished the Prague gymnasium.

1971-75 studied Engineering at the Technical College,
1975-76 editor of the „Die automobile Gegenwart“
1977 published his first book „Autosalon“
1981 - 2004 was editor in Agence France-Presse in Prague

Since 2004 has worked as freelance journalist. His textbooks and monographies were mostly published by Grada, a leading Czech Republic publishing house. Tuček is regularly publishing automobilia and historical articles in Automobil Revue (CZ), Motoristická součastnost, Svět Motorů , Autohit and Motor Journal.

Jan Tuček is a well known journalist in the Czech Republic a writer and also a respected expert on classic cars, especially of Czech, French and German manufacture.

Tuček, who also speaks German and French, lives and works in the Prague suburb of Uvaly.

GWP